U.S. WHEAT POOL EXPECTS BIG TURNOVER

Chicago, April 19.—Happen what will, President C. E. Huff of the Farmers National Grain corporation said the organization would keep right on marching "through the wheat."

Huff, president of the $20,000,000 marketing organization, today made his reply to the campaign started against the Agricultural Marketing act and its results.

Organized at the behest and under the leadership of the federal farm board, the corporation landed on its own feet at the inception and has stood there ever since, said Huff, who has been president less than two weeks.

Here are some points on which President Huff has emphasized. He is a peal of the Agricultural Marketing act and subsequent abolishing of the farm board would not stop the activities of the Farmers National Grain corporation.

The corporation's confidently expects to handle 250,000 bushels of 1930 wheat, and expects to handle relatively large amounts of coarse grains.

The corporation is not and never has been an object of charity. It made a profit on its first transaction and has functioned on its own power ever since.

Cat and Canary by Local Talent Was Sure Good

The Wetaskiwin Players scored another big success at the Audien Theatre on Wednesday evening of last week, in the presentation of "The Cat and the Canary," which was a distinctly different type of play to "Turn to the Right." In the opinion of the vast majority of patrons the company attained even greater popularity, their latest vehicle carrying a decidedly "big time flavor." Undoubtedly was the greatest mystery play ever presented locally, and the audience was keyed up with excitement throughout, except when the tension was relieved by clever comedy lines which punctuated proceedings at timely intervals. It was a particularly high class melodrama, and admirably performed by a company which enjoys a great reputation, not only in Wetaskiwin, but in adjacent towns. The special scenery and effects were in keeping with the production, and gave further evidence of the great efforts made to give a de luxe entertainment.

The play deals with methods employed by disappointed relatives to shock a young heiress into an unsound state of mind so that through the provisions of a peculiarly worded will, the estate would pass out of her hands. There are spooky and creepy happenings galore, and the audience is kept guessing until the curtain falls as to the identity of the villainous but thwarted "cat."

Director B. W. Bellamy introduced another real find in the person of Joyce Arrowsmith, who in making her debut in amateur theatricals was entrusted with the stellar role, and she fully sustained the confidence which Mr. Bellamy had placed in her ability to handle a character requiring exceptional talents in which emotions are called upon to play an outstanding part. The role of Annabelle West was very difficult of interpretation. Fear, smothered by sheer self control and confidence in faith and philosophy, however, takes a temporary upper hand in the midnight experiences of the newly appointed heiress, who ultimately triumphs over the spirit of evil, whose visitations steep the plot in uncertainty. In the part of the heroine, Joyce Arrowsmith carried unaffected charm and pleasing personality, sprightliness and infectious movement, combined with emotional endowments revealing talents which could not but win the sympathetic adoration of the most fastidious.

In a melodrama of this type one of the most difficult of assignments is to effectively punctuate the proceedings with a vein of comedy to relieve the tenuousness created by the many fearsome situations and in the role of Paul Jones, the village "Harold Lloyd" as timid as a rabbit but nevertheless persistent suitor of the heiress, Mr. Bellamy sustained his reputation with commanding command of interpretation and with youthful vigor, characteristic of the role, teaming with Joyce Arrowsmith in several scenes to provide the outstanding comedy elements of the production, and presenting but another instance of his wealth of versatility, which has been so well demonstrated on several previous occasions.

It was the second appearance of Mrs. "Nan" Drole, who made such a big hit in her debut in "Turn to the Right" last November. As the rather bombastic and virtuous Susan Silaby, her verbal curfew to relieve the tenuousness of feminine advice to both sexes were exemplified in a manner in which she at all times held complete command of the histrionic ability required, and she was undoubtedly one of the outstanding members of the cast.

As the "voodoo" servant, Mrs. Mary Edwards impersonated a part which required most carefully prepared interpretation, uncanny and mysterious of movement to a degree which elicited from the audience an awesome feeling of uncertainty as to her real connection with the plot.

Geo. Thompson and Wally Mountain as two of those disappointed in their quest of the West fortune and the hand of the new heiress, were particularly good in their characterization of roles carrying great contrast, the former as a dashing young fellow with plenty of vivacity and a rampant tongue, the latter of more reserved and stolid type, one of the targets of unjustified suspicion.

As the elderly family lawyer, Ed. Peterson carried himself quite a la professional, and very capably filled the role of an old time friend of the family, desirous of carrying out to the letter the wishes of the deceased millionaire.

PLANNING IDEAS ARE BEING TAKEN UP

Satisfaction upon progress achieved during the past year along the lines of improvement of homes and communities in Alberta is expressed in the first annual report of the town and rural planning advisory board which has just been issued in booklet form. The report is submitted to Hon. R. G. Reid, minister of municipal affairs, by Horace L. Seymour, director of town planning.

"While accomplishments of the board during the past year are satisfactory, complete success cannot be reported," the report states. "It has been sometimes difficult, if not impossible, to successfully explain to the farmer of school board interested in a planning programme that the proper location of buildings, the size of yards or recreational areas, and the provision of sanitary conveniences should receive at least equal attention."

"It has been difficult to explain to some towns that there are more important problems in municipal development, from a town planning standpoint, than the planting of trees on a certain street or the development of a certain park," the report continues.

"Every town must take an inventory of present conditions, economic and social, if future requirements are to be planned successfully. It has been found difficult in some cases, where the explanations have been accepted, to inspire the municipalities to effective action."

The report states that 14 commissions have been officially appointed in the province, while appointments of several other cities and towns are awaiting confirmation. The towns possessing commissions are: Calgary, Edmonton, Red Deer, Wetaskiwin, Didsbury, Drumheller, Grande Prairie, High River, Lacombe, Magrath, Peace River, Vegreville, Vermilion and Wainwright.

The advisability of the formation of horticultural societies in the smaller centres of population is stressed. These societies, the report says, may play an important part in municipal development by interesting themselves in a public planting program, doing in a small way what the park board or similar body does in the city.

EASTER

Easter week, which commences this year upon April 20, is associated in the minds of devout Christians with the resurrection of our Lord. But like a great many other of our Christian observances, it actually antedates Christianity by a good many centuries and has its origin in pagan rites which the early missionaries of Christianity, failing to abolish, changed and adapted in the course of time to suit Christian festivals.

The name Easter is derived from a festival celebrated in the month of April by the ancient Teutons in honor of the Goddess of Ostara, a divinity of light and spring. The Anglo-Saxon name for Ostara being Eastre, the month of April was given the name of Eastremonth and in Germany is still called Ostermonat.

To this goddess and to this season of the year the ancients feasted and made merry.

After the coming of Christianity there was a divergence of opinion in the church as to what the actual date to be set aside for the observance of the festival of Easter, but after the council of N in 325 the date was definitely fixed for the first Sunday after full moon which comes upon or next after the 21st of March.

The Phoenicians had a theory that the world was hatched from a large egg and there is no doubt that it was from this belief that the Anglo-Saxons came to regard the egg as sacred since it was associated in their minds with the creation of the world. The egg was lavishly painted and decorated and the custom prevails in many parts of Europe to this day.

With the Jews the egg is the symbol of a bird called Ziz, which is used at Passover. In Persia there is a story of two jealous brothers, who created two eggs, one filled with good spirits and one with evil, and who broke them loose upon the world. In memory of these two men the Persians present each other with colored eggs. To Christians the egg is a symbol of resurrection.

The Madonna lily is a favorite symbol of Easter and is used in our churches today. The tradition runs that the origin of the Easter lily comes from a story that when Mary, Mother of our Lord, died, Thomas was not present. The doubting one refused to believe her dead and asked to be shown the tomb, but when the tomb was opened they found only Easter lilies and for this reason the Madonna lily was taken as the Easter flower.

There are many superstitions associated with Easter that have survived from very ancient times. For instance, it was once a common belief that the sun used to dance on Easter morning and people arose early to witness this phenomenon. Others believed that the water danced, and would point to the shadow of water on a wall when the sun shined.

It was considered lucky to put out all the fires on Easter Eve and to light them afresh with flint and steel on Easter morning.

Another belief, that still survives very strongly to this day, is that one must wear a new article of dress to ensure good fortune in love. No doubt this was the origin of the Easter bonnet.

There are also many superstitions that concern the weather. Some people believe that if it rains, even if only a very little, on Easter Sunday, it will rain every day throughout the year. If the sun shines, even if only a very little, then it will shine every day till the end of the year. An old verse tells us that:

"A good deal of rain on Easter Day,
Gives a good crop of grass but little good hay."

Whatever the traditions surrounding Easter, however, it is chiefly associated in the minds of present-day Christian people with church-going with joyous music and with beautiful flowers. Surely there is no more triumphant cry in the world than the words of the beautiful old hymn which tells us that "Christ is risen."

NEAR CAMROSE

Mr. Norman Ross, superintendent of the Indian Head experimental farm in Saskatchewan, and a noted authority in matters of reforestation, was in Camrose on Thursday and Friday of last week, as a representative of the Forestry branch of the Department of the Interior, with the object of locating and recommending a half-section of land suitable for the establishing of a reforestation farm. The head of the Department of the Interior in the Ottawa government is Hon. Chas. Stewart.

When Mr. Ross came to Alberta to carry out his mission, he had three places to survey, Lacombe, Edmonton and Camrose. While here he was driven by Mr. George Shea to various farms within two miles distance from the town. The visitor expressed himself as finding a farm located two miles south suited to the requirements, level, dry and in proximity to shipping points.

It may be explained that the purpose of the reforestation farm is to grow trees and shrubs suitable for wind-breaks and to distribute the young plants free to farmers and others requiring them.

It is understood that on other farms of this description, administration and other buildings are erected, and the pay-roll is very considerable.

The importance of securing a reforestation farm for Camrose cannot be overestimated, and the decision of the department will be awaited with great interest. Knowledge of the requirements leads to the belief that Camrose stands an excellent

COSTS PLACED AT
$3,200 PER MILE

New highways constructed through a town cost $3,200 per mile, this sum being made up of $1,000 for grading and $2,200 for graveling, according to C. A. Davidson, highway commissioner for the province of Alberta, writing in the Union of Alberta Municipalities Research Bulletin. These figures are based on a highway width of 24 feet.

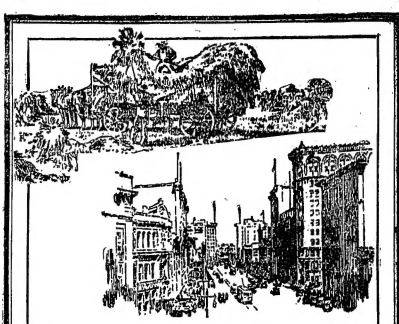

Maintenance costs for a gravelled road are set at $450 per mile per year, Mr. Davidson states.

Asking town councils to keep in mind that the present gravelled surface of the Edmonton-Calgary highway is not typical of what it will be in five years' time, Mr. Davidson recommends that care can be taken in road construction. The Edmonton-Calgary highway, for instance, will have a much harder surface by that time.

He recommends looking ahead and preparing for the future, and quite strongly urges highways being constructed round the outside of a town so that the heavy truck and through traffic may be diverted from town or city streets where traffic may become congested.

In no case will the provincial department allow a main highway to pass along in front of a school.

The town of Leduc is an example at present of bad conditions, where the main highway has to make a circuitous right angle turn in the very centre of the town, Mr. Davidson states. To avoid this the government is willing to defray the whole cost and shoulder the expense of maintenance if the highway is diverted round the outside of the town limits. Where the highway does not run

ALBERTA EXPORTS

From seven to nine carloads of select eggs are now being shipped by the provincial egg and poultry pool every week to eastern Canada, mostly to Toronto and Montreal, this representing approximately double the volume of a year ago. The eggs are assembled at the pool's four stations in Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and Stettler. Even at this figure, the business is not yet at its peak, which will not come until some time in May.

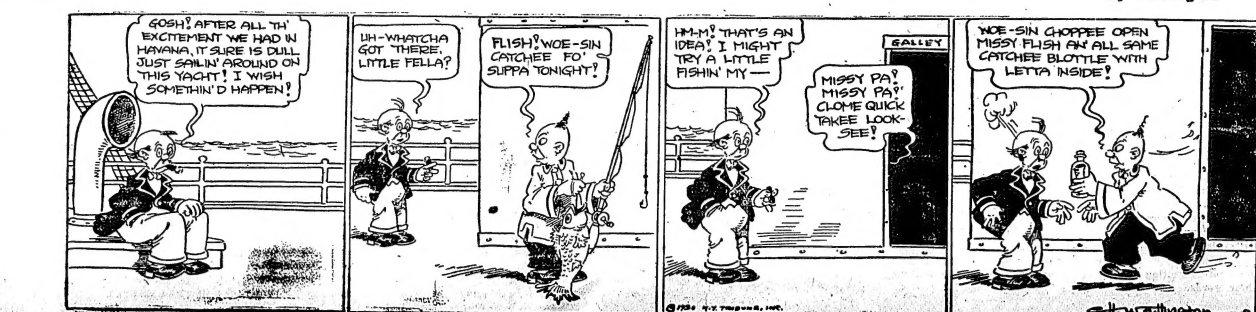

W. J. Malin, manager of the pool, says that prices in the east are fairly satisfactory, the market having largely recovered from the effects of heavy importations from the United States earlier in the season. Pool shippers are getting during April and May an advance payment of 16 cents a dozen, with further payments on a co-operative basis at the conclusion of the marketing period.

The city of Wetaskiwin came into being in 1892 when the C. & E. railway was in course of construction and the Indian name Wetaskiwin, of the neighboring Peace Hills, was adopted. A post office was opened in December of that year—Edmonton Journal.

A partial eclipse of the sun will be seen here on April 28th (if the weather is favorable).

Splendidly attended services were held on Easter Sunday at Brightview Baptist Church. Every seat was occupied and about 25 persons standing. LACOMBE BOARD HEARS IRVINE

Lacombe, April 19.—William Irvine, M.P., guest of honor at a Board of Trade luncheon held in the Adelphi hotel Wednesday evening, gave an interesting resume of the general activities of parliament during the last session. He touched upon the question of the divorce bill which has been the cause of much heated controversy and also went into some length regarding the ever present tariff question.

At the present time he held manufacturers are protected at the expense of the farmer.

Speaking of present conditions, Mr. Irvine felt that these were only the natural sequence in a cycle as a slump inevitably followed in the wake of a wave of prosperity.

ALBERTA PLANS BIG DEBENTURE SALE

150 PERISHED CHURCH FIRE GOOD FRIDAY

Chioesti, Rumania, April 19.—One hundred and fifty persons were burned to death here last night when a church in which a Good Friday vigil service was being conducted caught fire and was destroyed.

Just three who were inside the building when the fire began escaped. They attributed death of the others to their pious anxiety for the sacred vessels, the host and valuable altar cloth, which they rushed to rescue.

ARBOR DAY SET MONDAY, MAY 5

Edmonton, April 19.—Arbor day has been fixed for Monday, May 5, according to announcement made on Thursday by Premier J. E. Brownlee.

The day, usually the first Monday in May, is set by order of the lieutenant governor in council.

While not a statutory holiday, it is usually observed as a legal holiday, with government offices, courts and some other offices closed.

WAY TO ELIMINATE CARBON MONOXIDE

A chemistry professor at John Hopkins University announces a way has been found to eliminate deadly carbon monoxide gas from automobile fumes. Certain tests have been made which seem to show that an automobile equipped with the newly discovered agency can be left indefinitely in a closed garage with the engine running, without liberating certain monoxide or any other gas dangerous to human life.

If this was applied universally to automobiles, it would make asphyxiation from exhaust gases impossible. Also, it would keep this poison from going into the atmosphere and affecting plants and people.

The process is based, it is said, on the action of certain chemicals through which the gas fumes pass on their way to the exhaust.

ERECTION OF SIGNS ON ALBERTA ROADS

Erection of route number and direction signs will commence at an early date, says Hon. O. L. McPherson, Alberta minister of public works. They will be placed on sections of main highway on which final location has been made. The signs will be of enamel, and of the type adopted by western provinces and states. Numbering and lettering will be black on a yellow background and they will be used at curves, bridges, schools, railway crossings, etc., for the guidance of traffic.

CONSERVATIVES TO ORGANIZE IN EVERY ALBERTA RIDING

Plans for Conservatives organizing in the province were approved when a meeting of officers of the provincial organization was held at Calgary on Thursday. Hon. R. B. Bennett, K.C., M.P., dominion leader of the party was present.

Within ten days, it is stated, the party will be more efficiently and completely organized than it ever has been in this province. The plan is to form local associations in all ridings to be ready for either a provincial or dominion election when such is called.

No conventions to nominate provincial candidates will be called until something definite is known concerning an election. It is felt probable that there will not be a provincial election this year, so no steps will be taken for the present at least to place candidates in the field. In a number of ridings, it was proposed to hold organization meetings and name candidates shortly.

COMBINE THRESHER MAY AFFECT QUALITY OF GRAIN

Mr. S. Lacombe, of Birle, Man., a well-known grain prize-winner in earlier days with Marquis wheat, told the Camrose Canadian something of his experiences in Manitoba, from which The Times quotes regarding the weeds and the combine thresher.

Asked about the weed situation in Manitoba, Mr. Lacombe said it had been improved, and that its intrudee are being checked. More attention is being paid to the sowing of absolutely clean seed. He explained that inventive genius had not as yet developed a satisfactory weed cleaner at the time weed seeds were polluting Manitoba to the greatest extent. It had been found that "summerfallow" methods under very favorable conditions would weed the land, but the remaining 5 per cent were the trouble-makers. The Red River Valley has, as generally known, been the most weeded section of that province. Stock threshing had been a contributing factor in the distribution of weed seeds.

Asked to state his personal opinion of the combine thresher, Mr. Lacombe said that while it had many advantages, it had one dangerous disadvantage, namely, its effect on the quality of the threshed grain. He explained that when wheat is cut with a binder, it is removed close to the ground. The stem retains food or sap sufficient to feed the kernel for seven days after harvest. The combine, on the other hand, cuts the wheat so close to the ground that the kernel has no chance to mature. The combine, in cutting the grain close to the head, defeats nature's provision and the quality as a result suffers because the immature grains remain soft and shrivel. Mr. Lacombe said that if all seed of exact quality could be sown at uniform depth, 2 1/2 inches preferably, much of this disadvantage could be overcome, but farmers well know that there is a variation of from two to five inches. Mr. Lacombe pointed out that since many other countries are large grain growers, Western Canadian farmers should bend their efforts to quality first and last, and his own finding is that the combine militates against high uniform quality.

DRYS HAVE PLAN TO FORCE GOVT

Edmonton, April 18.—Disappointed at the fact that no action was taken by the provincial government during the last session of the legislature, to close the bars throughout the province as requested by the Alberta Prohibition Association and the various U.F.A. and U.F.W.A. organizations, the plan meets with the approval of the provincial executive, invoke the direct legislation act to force the hand of the government.

Under the Direct Legislation Act as passed in 1913, any number of electors being not less than 20 per cent of the number of the total electors at the last general provincial election, may present to the legislature a petition asking for a proposed act, which act in this case would be one to amend the Liquor Control Act, to provide for the closing of all beer parlors.

FEDERAL HOUSE OPENS THURSDAY

Ottawa, Ont., April 21.—While quiet still prevails in the halls of Parliament, it is a period of anticipation and conjecture. On Thursday Premier Mackenzie King and his ministers, nearly all of whom are out of town for a brief rest, will resume their meetings. They will have before them the principal item on the sessional programme—the budget.

The financial statement of the finance minister which, in addition to a review of the past fiscal year, covers his proposals for raising revenue for the present fiscal year, is always an important matter.

This year a particular importance and interest attaches to it. It is expected by many that this will be an "election" budget—that its presentation will give a real inkling as to whether or not the Government is going to the country during the coming summer. On that point there are

VEST-POCKET MOTORS BUILT IN GERMANY

Berlin, April 18.—Germany, the country of "vest pocket cruisers," now produces vest pocket motors about the size of a two-quart bottle.

Doctor Paul Heylandt, leading German research authority on liquid gases, has supplied Max Valier, well-known for his experiments with rocket cars, with a motor that is revolutionary in the simplicity of its construction.

Instead of powder or dynamite, Max Valier now uses Dr. Heylandt's liquid oxygen rocket, which has the advantages of being safe, always under control and supplying a continuous stream of propulsive energy.

In the front section of Valier's new rocket car is a gasoline tank, and behind the driver is a tank of the new liquid oxygen. Both elements are fed into a narrow bottle-shaped tube in the rear of the car, where they are ignited and produce such terrific recoil that the car is propelled forward.

The exploded mixture escapes by a rear aperture in this bottle-shaped rocket motor, leaving a long trail of fire behind but no smoke.

SAYS CROP CUT NOW ONLY HOPE

Washington, April 19.—The Federal farm board is asking farmers to reduce their production of wheat because "it does not believe they can put their industry on a profitable basis in any other way," Chairman Alexander Legge of the farm board declared in a radio address today.

Reports from Minnesota, North and South Dakota and Montana indicate the farmers there are responding favorably to the request that they plant less wheat and the board is getting encouragement from the Pacific northwest and from the winter wheat belt in its campaign for a reduction of 10 per cent in planting Legge said.

DRINKING FOR HEALTH

The body of the average person contains about seventy per cent of water. It is important, therefore, that the individual see to it that a sufficient amount of water is supplied to his body.

It is not possible to say just how much water a person should use because the amount varies, depending upon his occupation and the heat and moisture of the atmosphere in which he lives and works. Working out of doors on a hot day, a man gets rid of a considerable quantity of water by the evaporation of water from the skin.

Generally speaking, most people do not secure a sufficient amount of water; either they do not drink enough water or other fluids, or they

WHO FOOTS THE BILL?

Twenty-five million dollars is the price paid by farmers and poultry raisers for loss through diseases in poultry flocks annually according to recent estimates. Most of this loss is caused by the intestinal parasite and according to P. C. Elford, Dominion Poultry Husbandman, much of it is preventable. A good deal of it, he points out, can be eliminated by keeping young chicks away from adult birds and on absolutely clean soil.

COMMUNICATION

(We do not necessarily endorse the sentiment advanced by this or any other correspondent under this heading.—Ed.)

Dear Mr. Editor:
Some days ago we were all very much surprised to see notices posted up throughout the length and breadth of Wetaskiwin notifying us that a new order of things was being inaugurated in our fair city. Since the beginning it has been customary and apparently in order for farmers to tie their teams wherever opportunity afforded; but now, probably due to the march of progress, the City Fathers in their great wisdom ordered that from now and henceforth the farmer who from choice or necessity still drives a team of horses and utilizes Wetaskiwin as his trading point would be prohibited from using his old familiar tie post in the alley.

According to His Worship the Mayor, one of the reasons for this decree is that the odor from the faithful horse makes him sick. That the Mayor is a sick man I do not doubt, but I am of the opinion that his sickness is not caused by the odor of the horse, but by the odor of his sensitive nostrils, but by the arduous duties and numerous worries of his high and exalted office, for as a rule a chambermaid in a lively stable is a very healthy person.

Would it not have been a commonsense and businesslike proceeding to first secure a convenient place where farmers could tie their teams in safety before slapping them in the face with a notice tantamount to an insult? What are we to do? We must have some place to park our horses, and if we are denied the alley, it is main street for us, and horses and wagons have just as good a right to an honored place in front of business establishments as have automobiles; in fact, even a better right, for it was the poor depleted horse and lumber wagon aided by the oldtimer that established and built up Wetaskiwin. If the Mayor is right in diagnosing the cause of his sickness, I would suggest that the Council would secure tying places far enough away on the outskirts of the City, say at the Fair Grounds or somewhere near the Genz corner, then, when the halbrained scheme of sidetracking the city by opening up the main highway through the Burns slough north of the water tower and past the nuisance grounds is completed, the farmers might be able, through the kindness of passing tourists, to catch a ride and transact their business in other centres adjacent to Wetaskiwin.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor, for allowing me the privilege of discussing this important matter with you, I am,
Yours truly,
AN AUTOLESS FARMER.

The Canadian Pacific Railway announce the change of their train schedule to take effect May 15th, when they will again operate the famous Trans-Canada—all steel, all sleeping car train—between Montreal and Vancouver, also the Mountaineer—all steel and sleeping car train between

Chicago and Vancouver. No additional charges are made on these trains and both carry the famous "Solarium" observation cars which are equipped with ladies' and men's bath, women's lounge, men's smoking room, buffet and observation lounge and solarium. The Trans-Canada reduces the train time across Canada by one day each way. All main line trains make good connections at Calgary with Edmonton and Calgary trains in both directions.

BECOME FIRST NURSE
IN FAR NORTH

To Mrs. J. Dewey Soper, wife of the now famous discoverer of the nesting ground of the blue goose is to fall the unique distinction of being the only woman nurse to live in Arctic regions and the first white woman to winter on Baffin Island.

Word has just been received from Ottawa that Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey Soper and little son Roland will leave Montreal in July for Baffin Land on a two-year expedition. Mr. Soper is a former Edmonton boy and student of the University of Alberta. He will carry on research work for the Canadian government.

Mrs. Soper, formerly Miss Freeman of Wetaskiwin, is a graduate nurse from the Lamont hospital and will give medical assistance to the Eskimos along the coast. She will be the only nurse in the Arctic regions as well as being the first white woman to winter on Baffin Island.

Not only does this courageous young woman trust herself to the mercy of an Arctic winter, but she is also willing to take her little son into the far north. Her training as a hospital nurse will stand her in good stead so far from civilization.

Mrs. Soper is of the calibre which adventurers' wives should be. When her husband returned from the Arctic last September after an absence of a year and a half, only her shining eyes betrayed her relief from the long strain of waiting. The little son, whom Mr. Soper had not seen, had occupied her time and thoughts.

The only part of being the wife of a famous explorer and naturalist to which Mrs. Soper objects is the publicity. Once in Toronto when she and Mr. Soper's mother were members of an audience which he addressed on the subject of one of his earlier Arctic trips she had a bad attack of stage fright when some one suggested that she appear on the platform too.

In the early days of her marriage, Mrs. Soper accompanied her husband on several arduous topographical survey trips. Perhaps the hardest of all and the one that was the greatest strain on her courage, however, was the long trip from which her husband returned last autumn, having achieved his objective, the discovery of the nesting ground of the blue goose, for upon this she did not accompany him, and had ample time to worry about the hardships he was undergoing.

Have You An Acid Stomach?

When gas, pain and distress follow a good meal, it is an almost sure sign of "too much acid" in your stomach. Get rid of it now for it is dangerous. Ulcers are apt to follow. No matter how much acid is in your stomach, you can enjoy and relish your next meal without fear of after effects, if you have some Bismarck Magnesia handy to prevent the trouble before it starts. Try it. Eat whatever you like, in reason, and then take a little Bismarck Magnesia to neutralize the acid, sweeten your stomach and protect the stomach lining. Doctors recommend Bismarck Magnesia—thousands use it because it positively prevents stomach trouble or stress. The worst attacks in less than five minutes. Get a trial package, either powder or tablets, from your druggist, use as directed, and indigestion and stomach troubles will go like magic.

Alberta announced to the public that it had produced a record of $14,000,000 in 1929-30, according to figures just announced by Premier Provencher. Southern Alberta will add several more millions to the total, though the north is the main producing area.

Mrs. Murray, of the City of Regina, writes: "For years I have been subject to backaches and headaches, and could find no remedy that would relieve me until a neighbor told me about Doan's Kidney Pills."

"I hesitated for a while, about taking them, but finally I got a box and found to my great satisfaction that both the backaches and headaches were slowly but surely leaving me, so I got two more boxes and before I had finished the second one I was feeling very different."

"My work became a pleasure again, and to-day I am in perfect health."

is an Extravagance

For five hours today this woman patiently toiled over a washboard—bending, lifting, rubbing—doing the things a tireless little Electric washer can do in two hours. Day after day, she dusts, sweeps, cleans—doing things a vacuum cleaner could do twice as fast with half the effort.

With Electricity ever at hand such drudgery is an extravagant waste of time and effort. Hours that now drag slowly by might be enjoyed in doing the things she'd rather do. The woman who wishes golden hours of freedom must first break the shackles of housework. Electricity is ready to help.

production in 1928 was $20,350,000. The highest point reached since the province was formed was in 1920, when the figures climbed to $34,000,000.

There has been a gradual decline each year since that time, but hopes are entertained that the dairying industry will soon begin to mount again to its former prominence as a contributor to the net agricultural production of Alberta.

Baby has little upsets at times. All your care cannot prevent them. Then you can do what your experienced nurse would do—what wise physicians would tell you to do—give a few drops of plain Castoria. No sooner does baby feel the effect of this gentle laxative than he is as healthy as a horse. So it's safe to use as often as an infant has any little pain. You cannot get away. And it's always ready for the smaller pains of colic, or constipation, or diarrhea; effective, too, for older children. Twenty-five million bottles were bought last year.

The President then gracefully introduced Mrs. William Mellett of Wetaskiwin, who, with her Japanese curios, is over a welcome guest to the Band. After an interesting time spent with Japan and its people, the President expressed thanks to the speaker, and also to all those who by their presence had contributed to the success of the afternoon. This part of the program closed with the Miphah Benediction. Mrs. Fred Easterbrook kindly presided at the piano.

Refreshments were served by Band members and their mothers. The Band consists of eighteen members, meeting weekly on Monday's directly after school. "The study book 'Friendship Trails' is taken up and proves interesting.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO BE ERRECTED

A ratemakers' meeting was held in the Community hall on Tuesday, April 23rd, to discuss the advisability of building a new school. Mr. C. S. Bear was voted in the chair. The discussion was opened by the chairman, who then asked Mr. Gorman, chief inspector of schools, to address the meeting.

Mr. Gorman spoke very earnestly on the building of a new school, remarking on several defects of the old school, and pointed out that a suitable school could be built for a very reasonable cost.

Mr. Schofield, school inspector, then spoke, and endorsed what Mr. Gorman said.

A vote was taken on the advisability of building a school, and was carried by the affirmative. It was moved by Mr. A. P. Mitchell and seconded by Mr. Carney, that the Board take the necessary steps to float $15,000 debentures for the building of a stone or brick veneer school. The motion was carried by 25 for and 7 against.

After a little discussion as to a new site the meeting was adjourned.

The subject was "Resolved, that a better education is acquired from travelling than by reading." The affirmative was upheld by Lone Ridge, who provided the victory by a small margin.

Messrs. Heston, Russell and Emma of Wetaskiwin, were the judges, and were warmly thanked for their services, and to those of Lone Ridge who gave their heartiest support. A splendid concert and lunch concluded a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

The cornerstone of the new Vegreville post office building was laid Wednesday noon by A. L. Horton, editor of the Vegreville Observer, before a large gathering of townspeople. The ceremony included the placing of a copy of the town newspaper and documents containing the names of all public officials beneath the stone.

A strange phenomenon was witnessed by some of our citizens on Monday evening about 8:30. As reported, two shooting stars collided in the sky and burst, lighting up the earth like a giant Roman candle. It was a beautiful sight to see, but some were terrified, thinking the end of the world was at hand. — Hardisty World.

ALBERTA GIRL TO BECOME FIRST NURSE IN FAR NORTH

To Mrs. J. Dewey Soper, wife of the now famous discoverer of the nesting ground of the blue goose is to fall the unique distinction of being the only woman nurse to live in Arctic regions and the first white woman to winter on Baffin Island.

Word has just been received from Ottawa that Mr. and Mrs. J. Dewey Soper and little son Roland will leave Montreal in July for Baffin Land on a two-year expedition. Mr. Soper is a former Edmonton boy and student of the University of Alberta. He will carry on research work for the Canadian government.

Mrs. Soper, formerly Miss Freeman of Wetaskiwin, is a graduate nurse from the Lamont hospital and will give medical assistance to the Eskimos along the coast. She will be the only nurse in the Arctic regions as well as being the first white woman to winter on Baffin Island.

Not only does this courageous young woman trust herself to the mercy of an Arctic winter, but she is also willing to take her little son into the far north. Her training as a hospital nurse will stand her in good stead so far from civilization.

Mrs. Soper is of the calibre which adventurers' wives should be. When her husband returned from the Arctic last September after an absence of a year and a half, only her shining eyes betrayed her relief from the long strain of waiting. The little son, whom Mr. Soper had not seen, had occupied her time and thoughts.

The only part of being the wife of a famous explorer and naturalist to which Mrs. Soper objects is the publicity. Once in Toronto when she and Mr. Soper's mother were members of an audience which he addressed on the subject of one of his earlier Arctic trips she had a bad attack of stage fright when some one suggested that she appear on the platform too.

In the early days of her marriage, Mrs. Soper accompanied her husband on several arduous geographical survey trips. Perhaps the hardest of all and the one that was the greatest strain on her courage, however, was the long trip from which her husband returned last autumn, having achieved his objective, the discovery of the nesting ground of the blue goose, for upon this she did not accompany him, and had ample time to worry about the hardships he was undergoing.

Have You An Acid Stomach?

When gas, pain and distress follow a good meal, it is an almost sure sign of "too much acid" in your stomach. Get rid of it now for it is dangerous. Glacis are apt to follow. No matter how much acid is in your stomach, you can enjoy and relish your next meal without fear of after effects, if you have some Blaud's Magnesia handy to prevent the trouble before it starts. Try it. Eat whatever you like, in reason, and then take a little Blaud's Magnesia to neutralize the acid, sweeten your stomach and protect the stomach lining. Doctors recommend Blaud's Magnesia—thousands use it because it positively prevents stomach trouble or stops the worst attacks in less than five minutes. Get a trial package, either powder or tablets, from your druggist, use as directed, and indigestion and stomach troubles will no longer plague you.

Backaches and Headaches

Mrs. Murray writes: "For years I was subject to backaches and headaches and would find no remedy that really seemed to me until a neighbor told me about Doan's Backache Kidney Pills."

"I hesitated for a while, about taking them, but finally I got a box and found to my great satisfaction that both the backaches and headaches were slowly but surely leaving me, so I got two more boxes and before I had finished the second one I was feeling very different."

"My back became a pleasure again, and today I am in perfect health."

Drudgery is an Extravagance

For five hours today this woman patiently toiled over a washboard—bending, lifting, rubbing—doing the things a tireless little Electric washer can do in two hours. Day after day, she dusts, sweeps, cleans—doing things a vacuum cleaner could do twice as fast with half the effort.

With Electricity ever at hand such drudgery is an extravagant waste of time and effort. Hours that now drag slowly by might be enjoyed in doing the things she'd rather do. The woman who wishes golden hours of freedom must first break the shackles of housework. Electricity is ready to help.

production in 1928 was $20,350,000. The highest point reached since the province was formed was in 1920, when the figures climbed to $34,000,000.

There has been a gradual decline each year since that time, but hopes are entertained that the dairying industry will soon begin to mount again to its former prominence as a contributor to the net agricultural production of Alberta.

The leaves and branches of trees give a good indication of how fast the wind is blowing.

Are You Ready

When your Children Cry for It

Baby has little upsets at times. All your care cannot prevent them. But you can be prepared. Then you can do what your experienced nurse would do—what your physician would tell you to do—give a few drops of plain Castoria. No sooner does that baby lie asleep, quiet, than a matter of moments. You have saved your child without use of a single doubtful drug. Castoria is vegetable. So it's safe to use as often as an infant has any little pain you cannot get away. And it's always ready for the cruelest pangs of colic, or constipation, or diarrhea, effective, too, for older children. Twenty-five million bottles were bought last year.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING TO BE ERRECTED

A ratepayers' meeting was held in the Community hall on Tuesday, April 22nd, to discuss the advisability of building a new school, replacing the old one. Mr. C. S. Bear was voted in the chair. The discussion was opened by the chairman, who then asked Mr. Gorman, chief inspector of schools, to address the meeting.

Mr. Gorman spoke very earnestly on the building of a new school, remarking on several defects of the old school, and pointed out that a suitable school could be built for a very reasonable cost.

Mr. Schofield, school inspector, then spoke, and endorsed what Mr. Gorman said.

A vote was taken on the advisability of building a school, and was carried by the affirmative.

It was moved by Mr. A. E. Mitchell and seconded by Mr. Carney, that the Board take the necessary steps to float $15,000 debentures for the building of a stone or brick veneer school. The motion was carried by 25 for and 7 against.

After a little discussion as to a new site the meeting was adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Marr were canoe visitors last week.

School closed last week for the Easter holidays, and the teachers, Mrs. Edwards, left for her home at Bowden.

A very interesting debate took place at the school house on Wednesday evening, the 18th, between the U.F.W. and U.F.W.A. locals of Hillside and Lone Ridge before a full house.

The subject was "Resolved, that a better education is acquired from travelling than by reading." The affirmative was upheld by Lone Ridge, who proved the victors by a small margin.

Messrs. Manley, Russell and Emman of Wetaskiwin, were the judges, and were warmly thanked for their services, and to those of Lone Ridge who gave their heartiest support.

A splendid concert and lunch concluded a very enjoyable evening's entertainment.

YOU HAVE A DOCTOR'S WORD FOR THIS LAXATIVE

In 1875, an earnest young man began to practice medicine. As a family doctor, he saw the harm in harsh purgatives for constipation and began to search for something harmless to the sensitive bowels.

Out of his experience was born a famous prescription. He wrote it thousands of times. It proved an ideal laxative for old and young. As people saw how marvelously the most sluggish bowels are started and had breath, headaches, feverishness, nausea, gas, poor appetite, and such disorders, are relieved by the prescription, it became necessary to put it into ready for use. Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. It never varies from Dr. Caldwell's original effective and harmless formula. All druggists have it.

CHILD PATIENT DIES OF BURNS, INNISFAIR

Innisfair, April 20.—Helpless with pneumonia, three-year-old Edward Sinclair, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sinclair, farmers, residing three miles west of Innisfair, died at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, two hours after covering over his bed in the hospital at Innisfair took fire and he was caught in the flames. Decision as to an inquest was not reached last night. The child had been admitted to the hospital on April 16 and was being treated for pneumonia. According to information received in Calgary last night part of the method of treatment consisted of an inhalation from a mixture placed in a pan on a stove near the bed.

About 1:30 o'clock the nurse attending him passed by his bed and noticed that the pan was empty. She left the room to obtain additional liquid to place in the pan. A few minutes later she returned to find the bed covering and clothes were a mass of flames.

Without hesitation the nurse, whose name could not be obtained last night, braved the flames and dragged the youngster from his burning cot. It was too late, however, for the boy was burned all over the body, efforts of Dr. C. F. Dorsey to save him being futile.

Her patient rescued from the bed, the nurse collapsed. Last night she was confined to the hospital suffering badly from burns, mostly about her hands and face. Her condition was reported serious.

EXTENSION OF HIGHWAY URGED

Camrose, April 19.—A delegation comprising representatives from Camrose, Bawlf, Daysland, Strome, Killam and Hardisty, on Thursday, interviewed Premier Brownlee and Hon. O. L. McPherson, minister of public works, regarding the extension of the Wetaskiwin-Camrose highway eastward.

The urban municipalities along the route to be constructed had received the impression that in 1930 the highway would be graded from Camrose eastward to Killam. When it was learned that construction would, this year, go only to Daysland considerable disappointment was felt.

The delegation urged that a very sympathetic hearing by the premier and the minister of public works, though the premier could not make any definite promises nor is it likely that grading of the highway will extend as far as Killam, he said, but there are grounds for hope that the work may possibly be done as far east as Strome.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT ELECTRICAL
DEMONSTRATION

The ladies of Wetaskiwin had the pleasure on Thursday evening last of listening to Miss E. Frances Thompson of Toronto, one of the outstanding household economists of Canada, and at present engaged with the Canadian General Electric Company. Miss Thompson holds diplomas of dietetics and home economics awarded by the Board of Education in England, and lectured for years on these subjects in the old country. Unfortunately, Miss Thompson was indisposed while in Wetaskiwin, and the afternoon demonstration was cancelled, but in the evening she was greeted with a large and appreciative audience. The demonstration was held in the Elks' hall which was equipped with electric appliances and motives, such as "Cook Electrically—no soot, no fumes, no odor," and "All year round refrigerator safeguards your family's health." The electric equipment used by Miss Thompson comprised two General Electric Hot Point stoves with the latest automatic attachments in different sizes, the General Electric refrigerator, Hot Point toaster, Hot Point iron and Hot Point awesop. After Miss Thompson had welcomed the ladies to the meeting, she told how the newer and more convenient electrical appliances were taking a great hold in relieving the housewives from the drudgery that top often has accompanied the housewife. She explained the most recent model of the Hot Point stove, with its automatic features and showed how it maintained the heat at a uniform degree in the oven. The valuable points of the General Electric refrigerator were also illustrated—in the maintaining of the healthfulness of the foods, in prolonging the life of the foods, and in the economies effected by purchasing in larger quantities if advisable.

Several prizes were given away, the following holding the lucky tickets being the winners:
Toasters—Mrs. C. N. Gundeson,
Mrs. W. Chapman.

Hot Point Electric Irons—Mrs. Ed. Smith, Mrs. R. H. Chandler.
Sacks of flour—Mrs. W. East, Mrs. Ben Fortiss.

..you can win one as easy as pie!

All real boys and girls like to get their photographs taken here—the pictures make such peachy presents, and they're fun to have when you grow up, too.

Now's the time to do it, because there is a big Prize Contest with some wonderful prizes to the people whose pictures are chosen. You want to get in on it, of course. Bring Mother or Dad, and we'll tell you all about it. Don't wait too long—the Contest closes May 10th. We'll be looking for you soon!
